

OUR PURPOSE

We are agents of change, working together to make a more just and peaceful world by providing a safe place to question, think critically, grow, and inspire a new level of faith.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

As followers of Jesus, we put love first, welcoming your questions, accepting you as you are so you can be yourself. It is not enough to just believe. We take action.

OUR VALUES

unconditional love and acceptance an equal place at the table for all passionate, creative, engaging and enlightening experiences a safe place to interact, connect, and celebrate wonder at the mystery of the divine deeds, not creeds – we take action question. challenge. learn. evolve.

OUR STRENGTHS

accepting, inclusive, welcoming open-minded, progressive, non-traditional questioning, challenging, passionate involved, vital community actively making a difference caring, loving, compassionate spiritual, hopeful, joyous authentic, honest, fun, friendly

OUR MISSION

As followers of Jesus, we put love first. We're an open and inclusive community on a journey together, asking questions, challenging the status quo, seeking answers, and growing in our faith together as we actively work toward a more just and peaceful world.

Some of Our Partners:

LGBTQ inclusivity

Reconciling Ministry Network: www.rmnetwork.org

One Community: www.onecommunity.co

Social Justice & Leadership Development

Valley Interfaith Project: <http://valleyinterfaithprojectaz.com>

Preventing and Ending Homelessness

UMOM & New Day Centers: www.umom.org

Interfaith Dialogue and Cooperation

Fountain Hills Interfaith Alliance: www.prayswellwithothers.org

Contemporary Theological Resources

Center for Progressive Christianity: www.progressivechristianity.org

Living the Questions: www.livingthequestions.com

...and many other organizations, including Extended Hands Food Bank, Islamic Speakers Bureau of Arizona, The Arizona Interfaith Movement, and the Arizona Foundation for Contemporary Theology.

